

Darling Cellars Reserve Chocoholic 2014

main variety Pinotage

vintage 2014

analysis alc: 14.3 | ph: 3.68 | rs: 8.92 | ta: 5.53

type Red

producer Darling Cellars

winemaker Carel Hugo & Alastair

wine of origin Darling

tasting notes

A delicious and elegant wine that delights the nose and palate with lovely dark plum flavours with soft tannins and lingering notes of toasty oak characters. A wine that shows a lot of modern styling with the trademark Darling elegance!!

blend information

100% Pinotage

in the vineyard

Deep, decomposed granite soils on the slopes of the Darling Hills, with a cooling effect in the warm afternoons from the Atlantic Ocean in close proximity.Vineyard type: Bush Vine, dry land

about the harvest

Yield: 3-7 t/ha Balling at Harvest: 24° B

in the cellar

A portion of the wine spend 8-12 months on staves and to add complexity and layers, this wines is blended with other components.